My Grandfather by: J.D. Burleson

John Ray Burleson was my grandfather on my father's side. He was known by "Ray". I can remember very little about him, but all my memories are of a very kind and loving family man. He died when I was 14 and his funeral was the first one I ever attended. He was a World War I Veteran and he was given a Military Funeral with full Military Honors. I will always remember that when they played taps and fired the 21 gun salute, several women fainted. A United States Flag was on his coffin, and it was presented to my grandmother, Gladys. She gave it to Ruth Culler who gave the flag to Donald Culler, a grandson who was born a few months after Ray's death.

I remember once when my family was living in Siler City on Ray Steed's Farm. Ray came to stay with us for a week or so. He would take my sister, Linda and me fishing on a lake on the farm.

Ray was a carpenter and he built his family a home at 5 Royal Street, Thomasville, NC. I remember he had an accident and two of his fingers were cut off at the first knuckle. He would always pinch us kids on the leg or arm with those knuckles and he thought that was so funny.

Russell Connection

Gladys Russell was my grandmother, on my father's side. She was the daughter of Thomas and Nancy Elizabeth Hill Russell. It was very hard finding Thomas. Everything I had found indicated he was living in Stanly or Montgomery County. Then I discovered that he was living with his son Glenn in Thomasville, in 1942 when he died. His death Certificate was in Davidson County. Once I found his death certificate and found out his father's name was Lane Russell, I was able to place him in a book on the Russells written by Ernest Parker Russell, called "The Grains of Sand". I have a copy and there is a copy in the Stanly County Library.

In the 1870 NC Census, you will find Y.L. Russell, 45 M, born 1825, Elizer Russell, 40 F, born 1830, with 7 children, the 6th being Thomas Russell, 7 M, born 1863. James Russell, 1765 was the father of Leonard Russell, 1790, father of Youngman Lane Russell. Leonard Russell married Polly Brewer. They were born in about 1790. Youngman Lane was born in 1825 and died in 1892 and is buried in Center Methodist Church Cemetery. He has a marker but the stone had deteriorated to the degree the inscription could not be read. He married Eliza Russell in 1847. Eliza is the daughter of Willis and Polly Coggin Russell, she was born between 1827 and 1830. In 1850 they were living in house #1079 in Randolph County and her brother Whitson A. Russell was living in the home of Joseph Hopkins, house # 1084. Youngman Lane and Eliza moved to Montgomery County and settled in the Grady Fork Creek and Beaverdam Creek area. In 1870 Census of Montgomery Co. Eldarado, Youngman Lane and Eliza were living in house #39, Whitson A. Russell and Martha was living in house #40, and Julian Harris and Christina Russell in house #38.

More About YOUNGMAN LANE RUSSELL: Fact 1: SEE PAGE 43 OF GRAINS OF SAND BY ERNEST RUSSELL FOR STORY OF EL DARADO CHURCH Notes for ELIZA RUSSELL:

Eliza Russell, born 1827, married ca 1847 Youngman Lane Russell, born 1824-1825. In 1850 they were living in house # 1079 in Randolph County and her brother Whitson A. Russell was living in the home of Joseph Hopkins, house # 1084.

Youngman Lane and Eliza moved to Montgomery County and settled in the Grady Fork Creek and Beaverdam Creek area. The Coggins and Willis Russell families had lived in this area.

Here is some history. In 1845, before Polly Coggin Russell died, she and Willis sold to J.M. Worth a tract of land (117ac) "lying and being on both sides of Grady Fork Creek known by lot #1 being one of the eight divisions of that Tract of land that Simon Coggin allowed to his widow & children etc." In 1862 J.M. Worth sold to Youngman Lane Russell 851/4 acres for $130.00. The land was located in Montgomery Co. "on the waters of Beaverdam Creek leading from Center Meeting House and Leonard Russell line etc." This is part of the same land above mentioned and is being sold back to Willis and Polly's daughter, Eliza and her husband. It could be that is where she lived as a girl.

I have not found dates, but Y.L. and Eliza died before 1897. In a marriage certificated of their son Julian Harris, Sept 9, 1897, they are given as his parents, both deceased. They are buried in Center Methodist Church Cemetery. Their stones have deteriorated to such a degree the inscription cannot be read.

My Father-in-Law

By: Ruth Ward Burleson

I first met him when I started dating Odis. He was a quiet country man who worked hard, being a carpenter. His children respected him and by today's standards he was poor and very tight with his money. He carried it in his bib overalls in the bib part of the overalls. I worried someone would harm him to get his money. He stayed at home after he retired except when he would go fishing or to talk with his buddies. He loved to fish and he took his grandchildren a lot.

He did not trust banks to keep his money. He lost all his money when he got out of the army and the banks closed.

He and his wife built their home in Thomasville. He was watching a friend plow when he dropped dead with a heart attack. He did not attend church while I knew him. They said he used to go with his family.

Our Mother, Attie Jerome Burleson Bass

By: A. Paul Bass, Jr.

Our mother Jerome was a loving kind person who devoted her married life being a homemaker, mother and wife. As her only son, (Paul Jr.), I lived in her home for just over 18 years. During those years from 1929 to early 1945 Jerome's family moved frequently since her husband followed construction work, building hydroelectric dams at High Rock, NC, where I was born in 1927, Cliffside NC, Beckwith W Va. where Ruby was born in 1931, Dublin Va., Forrest City NC, Spencer NC, then Lenoir City, Tn. in 1940 for construction of the Fort Loudon Dam.

In the years 1940 through early 1945 Jerome cooked everything brought into the house by two avid hunters and fishermen, Paul Sr. & Jr. Quail, squirrel, rabbits, turtle and fish were always prepared for the dinner table by Jerome, alone with homemade biscuits.

When I started searching for information on my ancestors all I knew was my grand father, Ray Burleson, had a sister named Jerome. I was talking with Eddie Burleson, who lives in Butler, IL and he said he had a picture of Jerome with his mother Lillie. He sent me this picture and told me about Jerome's son Paul Bass Jr. I then contacted Velsa West a daughter of Genie and she found Paul's phone number and what was just a name has turned into a complete family story thanks to Paul Bass Jr.

Burleson Family Reunion called a success

The Burleson Family Reunion took place on the third Sunday of October and was directed by Hilda Snuggs and Daniel Burleson.

The program theme was "The Service of the Burleson Family in the War of Northern Aggression" and John Hoyle Burleson gave a presentation.

A covered dish dinner was shared by approximately 100 descendants of Isaac Burleson, Sr., representing the family names of Almond, Harwood, Castle, Rogers and Sides, just to mention a few.

Coinciding with the theme was a special presentation to Dallie Mae Burleson for being a "True Daughter" of a Confederate veteran, Ebin Burleson, who was a member of Co. K "The Stanly Guards" of the 28th NC, Lane's Brigade in the Army of Northern Virginia.

An Honorguard provided by the 14th NC Reactivated, a seven-man company of Sgts. Mike Long and Tommy Hoglon, escorted Dallie Mae to the front of the stage where she was presented a True Daughter certificate by Lois Huneycutt, president of Albemarle Chapter 1023 United Daughters of the Confederacy. J.D. Burleson, representing the Point Lookout Prisoner of War organization, presented a second certificate.

A group photograph of all in attendance was taken by Little Photography of Locust with an option of individual family photographs to be taken after the presentations.

Family charts and information were supplied by the Burleson Research Group to share and guide descendants toward their relatives of the past and through parts of their lost personal history.

"We feel that this event was a success and a good time was shared by all," a spokesman said.
