Notes for ISAAC BURLESON:

Isaac Burleyson
Company C 42nd North Carolina Hoke's Brigade
1842 - 1910

Isaac was the third son of William "Billie" and Sarah Harwood Burleyson of Little Bear Creek in Stanly County. He enlisted into the Confederate Army on February 1, 1862. His service started as a prison guard at Salisbury and ended at Bennett's Place in May 1865. This included service with the Army of Northern Virginia.

The 42nd saw action in the Eastern part of North Carolina in 1862 and 1863. In 1864 the 42nd, Hoke's Brigade, was sent to defend Richmond. General Grant suffered greatly in his attack at Cold Harbor against Hoke's Brigade.

The 42nd was positioned in the center and all other regiments were aligned to the left and right of the 42nd at Bentonville. This was the very last battle to stop Sherman's much larger army.

Isaac gave his service in full measure from February 1862 until the final Confederate surrender and the disbanding of the 42nd on May 2, 1865 at Center Church in Randolph County.

Isaac returned to Stanly County after the war to marry Mary Hearne and there they raised their family and helped to rebuild their community. Today they lay in rest in the family graveyard on Burleson Road.

Notes for LENA ODESSA LOWDER:

Article on Lena in the Recollections page 42-43. And an article she wrote on page 6.

THE STANLY NEWS & PRESS, Albemarle, N.C., Thursday, March 23, 2000

Lena Odessa Lowder Burleson, 95, of 2675() Burleson Road, Albemarle, died Tuesday, March 21, 2000, in the Lutheran Nursing Home in Albemarle.

Her funeral will be at 2 p.m. today in Pine Grove United Methodist Church, where she was a member. The Rev. Curran Welch and The Rev. Martha Welch will officiate and burial will be in the church cemetery.

A business woman, farmer, dairyman and poultry farmer, she was born April 30, 1904, at the Lowder homeplace off the Concord Road, the oldest of seven children. She lived with and cared for her aging grandparents until their deaths. During this time she absorbed good reading materials, excelled in school and developed a sense of history and pride in her heritage. Events and people of the time made a deep impression on her and school, although a long walk, was a joy.

Her great-grandfather gave the three acres of land for Friendship Methodist Church and it was here she joined family members in singing. Her uncles played in the band from the area and at one time, she could play a violin, piano, organ and strum a guitar.

In 1922 she married Klon Roy Burleson and moved to the home on Burleson Road, becoming a member of Pine Grove Methodist Church.

In 1928 her husband became ill with Hodgkins disease. When he died in 1936 she had five children and was expecting her sixth.

Refusing to place any of her children in an orphanage or let family members take one or more of them, she set about to do what she knew to support them, farming. She raised chickens and sold eggs, milk and butter to support her family.

Her workday averaged 18 hours. After dark and with the chores done, she made butter, preserved the food of the season and made clothes for herself and her children.

She was barber to her sons, the neighbors and nearby relatives.

Over the years her children grew up and her sons served in the military. All settled not too far from her.

"Miss Lena" was ahead of her time with her awareness of events around the country and in foreign places and remained involved in current happenings and issues, politics and farming until well into her 90s.

She is survived by three sons, Jay Brice Burleson, Ted E. Burleson and Johnny P. Burleson, all of Albemarle; three daughters, Ruby B. Greene and Hilda B. Snuggs, both of Albemarle, and Del B. Nunn of Charlotte; 14 grandchildren; and 25 great-grandchildren.

Memorials may be made to Pine Grove United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall, 29844 NC Hwy. 24127 Albemarle, NC 28001.

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

Margaret Burleson Christenbury Lee

May 26, 1918 - October 7, 2008

Margaret Burleson Christenbury Lee passed away peacefully to be with her Lord on October 7, 2008 at Crystal Bluffs Rehabilitation and Health Care Center in Morehead City, North Carolina. Prior to moving to Morehead City, she resided in Fayetteville, North Carolina. Mrs. Lee was the daughter of the late Effie and Carley Burleson of Albemarle, North Carolina. She was preceded in death by husbands, Earl Thomas Christenbury Sr. in 1961, James Oatley Lee in 2006; and her youngest daughter, Judy Cotter Kelly in 2005.

After retiring from Sears, Margaret remained active in the Fayetteville community with the Lady Lions, The Tar Heel Quilters Guild, and many organizations associated with Snyder Memorial Baptist Church. She had a passion for crafts and was an accomplished seamstress who received Master Craft Certification in several areas. Turning a hobby into a vocation, she always looked forward to the County Fair where she entered many crafts. She especially enjoyed the Holiday Christmas Show where she displayed and sold quilts, dolls, pillows and other projects she made throughout the year. Each grandchild lovingly received a quilt for high school graduation and as a wedding gift.

Queen of the kitchen

After 41 years of cooking the Family Night at First Baptist Church Ruth Elliott cooks her last supper.

Ummmm! You know it's country style steak night when you hit the parking lot. Or when you head down the hall toward the office. It's all you can do not to follow your nose right into the kitchen and peek into the pot. Wednesday is family night at First Baptist Church, and by 5:30 the line is long and mouths are watering for Ruth Elliott's country style steak and mashed potatoes and gray, salad bar, and hot rolls. Hot rolls? She reaches into the oven and takes out a dozen rolls she's preparing for a take-out order - and drops them. Plop! Right in the middle of the floor. No worry about the rolls. She's got plenty more. But this is the first time in the 41 years Miss Ruth has been queen of the kitchen at First Baptist that she's ever dropped anything. Maybe it's a sign. This day is different from all the other days. It's Miss Ruth's last. She won't be calling Albemarle today or tomorrow to get her chicken order in for next Wednesday night or going to Food Lion Tuesday morning to pick up the rest of her groceries and kid around a little with the cashiers. They beg her to put all her recipes in a book so they can buy it.

She won't be in the church kitchen by 7:15 next Wednesday morning. OK, so 7:15 is an early starting time for a 5:30 supper but frying steak for 300 people, give or take a few, takes time. And she doesn't drive. Her husband, Sam, who always took her every where, died almost two years ago. Now her daughter-in-law, Dee, takes her to work as she goes herself, and Dee's a teacher. So Miss Ruth starts early. Or did. She won't have to next week. Phyllis Ohm, who's been helping her for several years now and knows all the secrets that Miss Ruth has never kept secret, will be ordering the meat and picking up the groceries next week. "But I'm not going to tell'em goodbye," Miss Ruth says, coating another piece of steak with flour. "I'm going to volunteer to pour tea next week, so I can talk to everybody." Not to spend hours making sure the seasoning is just right and turning steak in the big iron pan and loving every minute of it because she knows the eaters are going to love every bite. "This is one of their favorite meals," she says. "I think I could fry chicken one week and steak the next and they'd be happy." Especially if dessert is chocolate cake with chocolate icing. But she likes to mix the menu up a little, so the Baptists have meat loaf nights and spaghetti nights and chicken pot pie and beef stew nights and coconut and lemon cheese pies, and they eat it all. So why did she decide to retire? "It wasn't easy," she admits. But she's 79 years old, and after 41 years as church hostess, she knows it's time. "I've got arthritis so bad in the knees and I'm afraid I'll fall." And if she falls, she could end up in a nursing home like her sister, Gertie Burleson, did, and she doesn't want that to happen. "So I cried, and I prayed," she says, "and I prayed and I cried." And finally she knew what the decision had to be. She'd retire and become a volunteer and let someone else be responsible for getting everything ordered and prepared and served and cleaned up after 250-300 eat their fill. It is fitting. She started as a volunteer.

Moved from Charlotte

Mrs. C.P. Mulder was church hostess when she and Sam and their two children moved here from Charlotte because of Robie Nash. Sam was a wheel alignment man, and Robie Nash had an automobile agency and a garage. "And Robie's daddy and my daddy were first cousins," she says, "so Robie came to Charlotte to get Sam to work for him when Raymond was only six weeks old" and their daughter, Charles Carolyn, was a few years older. "We moved, and the second week we lived here Maxine Carlton and Molly Moore came over and enrolled my son in the cradle roll at church, and we started coming to First Baptist and I started cooking." It was as simple as that.

She learned to cook from her mother and both her grandmothers. They all cooked by instinct. "And they were all excellent cooks," she says. She likes to read recipes and she uses them - but she changes them when she wants to. When she started volunteering. First Baptist was on the corner of Church and Liberty. When the present church was built, Mrs. Mulder decided to quit and the Rev. Archie Ellis asked Miss Ruth to be the hostess at the new church. And it's been her joy ever since.

`A little extra'

"I've always had good help," she says. And it's not hard to find out what people like (First Baptists like limas better than sugar peas) or cater to people who need something special. When she makes potato salad, she takes out some for those who can't eat onions before she puts the onions in. And she fixes chicken without salt for people who can't eat salt. "It don't take much to do a little extra," she says. That pleases the members. And pleasing them pleases her. Like it always pleased her to watch people eat the angel biscuits she used to make. They couldn't get enough of those biscuits. One night when she was leaving a little boy asked her if she carried any of those angel biscuits in her pocketbook. No, not in her pocketbook, she told him, but she had some in the kitchen and she fixed a bag for him. Nora Poole used to say if Miss Ruth went first she'd look at her hands and just wonder how many angel biscuits she'd made in her life. She started them as an experiment, and everybody liked them so much she served them with everything until the doctor told her she'd have to stop making bread. But she didn't worry about that. She just bought rolls and they're good, too. She's never worried about hercooking. Cooking's like growing flowers,-' she said once long ago. "You have to talk to it. But I don't ever worry about it."

Not in the early days of the new church when the temperature rested in the 90s and there was no air conditioning, or now when people forget to make reservations or make them and don't come. It all evens out. Just like she's not worrying about retiring. Well, not much.

Hates to leave

Wednesday night, handing out the silver, she admits that deep down in her heart she's thinking somebody else will be doing this next week. But she doesn't talk about it. Instead she smiles. "I love it," she says, "and I just hate to leave it so bad. But I'm not going to sit down and do nothing." She's already got an order to fill for someone tomorrow at home. And she knows First Baptist won't ever turn away a volunteer who's been going to the church for 55 years. So she doesn't talk about what's painful deep in her heart, but smiles at what's joyful. She loves to cook, and she loves to see people eat.

Johnny Paul Burleson, 84, of Albemarle passed away peacefully in his home on Sunday evening of December 6th 2015, surrounded by his loving family.

Johnny was born to the late Klon Roy and Lena Lowder Burleson on May 30, 1931. He is preceded in death by siblings Ruby Burleson Greene and Jay Brice Burleson.

Johnny is survived by his wife of 58 years, Carol Westbrook Burleson and two daughters that he adored, Cindy Burleson Dry and husband Ron Dry of Albemarle and Angie Burleson Rudisill and husband Alton Rudisill of Catawba, NC. His grandchildren are Mandy Dry Efird (Levi), Travis Dry (Michelle), Jill Dry (Jeremy), Bradley Rudisill, and Hunter Rudisill. He has 4 great grandchildren, Kaylyn and Kaden Little, Bryson and Josiah Efird. His brother Ted E Burleson and two sisters, Hilda B Snuggs and Klone Del B Nunn survive him.

After a four year tour in the US Air Force, Johnny graduated from Pfeiffer College and UNC Charlotte's graduate studies program with degrees in Education, Earth Science, and Drivers Education. In his years in teaching, Johnny touched the lives of many students beginning as principal at Brower School in Randolph County before returning to Endy School, where he had graduated with the Class of 1950, he became a teacher and coach. He completed his teaching career at West Stanly High School as driver's education teacher. As an instructor, he covered academic requirements along with many life lessons he continually instilled in his students.

At Pine Grove Methodist Church, Johnny lent support and labor, always inspiring others and recognizing their talents. At DAV Post #12, Johnny served on the ritual team, taking pride in transporting our "War Heroes" for appointments to the veteran's hospital.

Johnny's happiest moments were spent as a farmer in his spare time, many times donating his time to help neighbors. Johnny enjoyed spending quality time with his family that he was very proud of.

For some sixteen years, Johnny enjoyed excursions across our county and abroad with family members enjoying the natural beauty. His classroom experience made him always the teacher on board.

Johnny was a gifted entrepreneur in real estate matters. He purchased, restored, and provided quality homes for many Stanly County families.

Johnny's family extends their appreciation to Hospice of Stanly and the Uwharrie and to Dr. David Catoni for their care and support during the recent weeks. Truly Earthly Angels

Notes for LORETTA JEAN BURLESON:
Biography of Jean Burleson Millspaugh

I am the firstborn of Thurman and Mary Jewel Burleson, born October 19, 1942 in Norfolk, Virginia. We lived about one and a half years in Norfolk, Virginia then moved near family in Stanly County, NC. When I was five years old our family moved to Richfield, North Carolina. I grew up on our farm and attended Richfield School grades 1-12. After high school graduation, I went to Pfeiffer College and graduated in 1965 with a Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics. I taught high school math at Mt. Pleasant High School for one year, and 29 more years at Albemarle High School until I retired.

As a country girl, I always took pride in being able to do many things out of the ordinary. At a young age, I was interested in growing flowers and other plants, gardening, yard work, sewing and machine embroidery. I like working with family. In 1989, we began an ice cream business named Poppin John's Homemade Ice Cream which is still very successful. Also in 1996, our family built Rolling Hills Cotton Gin to meet a great need for the area cotton farmers.

I was married to (1) Denny Dan Morgan February 3, 1962 at Cokesbury Methodist Church, Charlotte, NC. He was born December 10, 1939 in Stanly County NC.
