J.D. Burleson compiled the information contained in this book. It is the result of a great deal of hard work by Jeffery Burleson, Donald K. Burleson and Janet Teeter; the direct descendants of John Wesley Burleson. We have gathered this information from public records and family members. This is an ongoing work-in-progress and we intend to make corrections and additions as needed. If your family is not represented in this book it is because we did not have access to the information. It is our goal to make this work as complete as possible. We would appreciate your suggestions, corrections, or additional information. If you have any additions or corrections please contact:

Notes for ISAAC BURLESON SR:

Who is Isaac Burleson, Sr. ?

Isaac Burleson was the founder of the line which resulted in most of the Burlesons of Stanly County. We know the following about him. He served his country in the American Revolution as a member of Captain Charles Polk's Company of the North Carolina Militia. Records proving his service are contained in Record Group 93 (# 461) in the National Archives. Most of his service was in the Cross Creek (Fayetteville) area of the state, helping put down uprising Tory, or Loyalist, forces who continued to support King George. In 1785, following the Revolutionary War, the United States awarded ISAAC BURLESON, probably as a reward for his services at Cross Creek, 100 acres of land along the Yadkin River in Montgomery County.

It is believed that Isaac was born either in Lunenburg Co., Virginia or Cumberland Co., North Carolina around 1750. ISAAC'S name first appears on a tax list in Montgomery Co. (now Stanly) in 1782. In the 1790 Census, he is shown as a resident of Montgomery County, with a wife, Martha Clay and three children; Isaac Jr. age 10, Jonathan age 8, and Rachel (infant). Tradition says ISAAC'S wife, the former Martha Clay, was related to Henry Clay, the outspoken Kentucky senator.

Isaac and Martha went on to produce five more children; Jane, David, Joseph, an unknown child, and Thomas. Each of these children is another story in itself.

On Nov 5, 1794, Isaac Burleson recorded his purchase of 100 acres of land on Little Bear Creek about 300 yards below the mouth of Running Branch. This is according to Montgomery County land entries, file number 1033, grant book 94, page 80.

The 1800 Census shows ISAAC BURLESON to be a man more than 45 years of age, with his wife between 26 and 45, three male and five female children. A land grant to ISAAC BURLESON in November, 1815, file number 1870, grant book 125, page 386, mentions the property of ISAAC BURLESON dec'd as a line mark, so by this time ISAAC had died and his son was receiving the grant. Honoring the Grave of a Revolutionary War Soldier

May 28, 1995

by P.K. Burleson

In 1988 I was invited to become a member of the Battleground Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution here in Burlington, N.C. However, there was the requirement that I must prove that I actually was a descendant from a Revolutionary War ancestor; thus began my Burleson family research.

My first endeavor was a trip to Raleigh, NC, --NC Department of Archives-- where I began an exhaustive search through Census Records, Birth Certificates, Marriage Bonds/Certificates, Wills, Deeds, and Landsale Records.

Eventually, I was able to verify four Burleson generations beginning with Jape C. Burleson (b. Oct 26, 1884), Adam Burleson (b. Jan 29, 1847), Lee Burleson (b. 1826), and Isaac Burleson Jr. (b. 1784). During this lengthy process, I did secure the assistance of a Professional Genealogist who was able to provide additional Burleson information working toward completion at this point.

Information on the next generation back was that of Isaac Burleson, Sr. which seemed to be more difficult to establish. Fortunately in the fall of 1991, I was referred to Thurman Burleson who, supposedly, had much information on Burleson families, and who was a active member of the Burleson Family Association, Dallas, Texas; and, further, had attended several of the Annual Meetings.

Thurman and I had several telephone conversations and he confirmed the Burleson information which I had been able to assemble. When I mentioned the fact that I had been unable to find a record of Isaac Burleson being in the military, he immediately gave me information that Isaac Burleson's enlistment was in South Carolina (my search had been in NC only). Records confirmed his enlistment was with the 5th SC Regiment-Revolutionary War-April 16, 1776. Thurman and I had planned to meet in January 1992, however, his death occurred earlier.

In the meantime, my SAR application was approved and I officially became a member of the local SAR Chapter on Dec 5, 1989. Latter this SAR Chapter indicated a desire to honor this Revolutionary War Patriot.

In the spring of 1995, I contacted Thurman Burleson's son, Ronnie Burleson of Richfield, NC who was able to point out the grave site of Isaac Burleson in the Ruben Springer Burial Ground, Stanly County, off of Dusty Road (NC 1226). A publication in the Stanly County Library --Private Cemeteries & Burial Grounds-- confirmed this information and stated, further, he was the first person to be buried at this location.

I then applied for a headstone through the Department of Veteran Affairs, who confirmed Isaac's Military Service in the Revolutionary War after 184 years. This headstone, complete with lettering, was received from the Georgia Marble Company.

A contact was made with the present owner of this particular property, Dale Burris of Oakboro, NC, who gave permission for this headstone to be installed. At 11:00 AM, May 5, 1995, Ronnie Burleson, my brother Aaron and Gretchen Burleson of Burlington, NC, JD & Karol Burleson, of Thomasville, NC, Thomas N. and Martha Clark, of Burlington, NC, Hoey & Stella Burleson Curlee, and Wilma Burleson Harris of Albemarle, NC, Hazel Burleson and I erected this headstone beside the slate marker, along with the Bronze Patriot Seal.

On May 28, 1995 the SAR Color Guard, dressed in Colonial Uniforms, comprised of Richard J. Moore, E.F. Sharpe, Nat Clark, and myself led the solemn Ceremony. The unveiling of the Marker was by Jerry Burleson and Christopher Burleson --5th & 6th great-grandsons; the laying of the Wreath was by

Katie and Daniel Burleson --6th generation grandchildren. (Randleman, NC)

Others participating in the Dedication were Dr. Charles E. Page, former Chaplain General of the National Society SAR, Mrs Hazel B. Burleson, Regent of the Battle of Alamance Chapter DAR, Raymond Donnell, President of the Alamance Battleground Chapter SAR, and Thomas N. Clark, President of the NC Society SAR.

Refreshments were served to approximately 80 of the Burleson descendants and SAR participants.

The Family of Joseph and Nancy Burleyson

By John Hoyle Burleson

Joseph, the son of Isaac Burleyson Sr. of The American Revolution, married Nancy Rogers. They both died young and left a large family. We know of seven children of this union.

The sons were:

- Isaac, b. 1827 d.1891
- David Derrick, b. 1835 d.1896
- John Wesley, b. 1839 d. 1926
- Joseph Benjamin, b. 1842 d. 1900

The daughters were:

- Susan, b. 1834
- Martha Jane, b.1836
- Wiley, b. ?

Nancy was the daughter of John M. and Sarah Biles Rogers. John M.'s father was James Rogers. Sarah's parents were Thomas and Tobitha Biles. The Biles were millers and large landowners in the Mountain Creek area of Stanly Co. NC. The Roger's were large landowners living in the Northern part of Stanly Co. along the headwaters of Bear Creek. Two of Nancy's sisters, Fannie and Anna (twins), married two Hatley brothers, William and Simeon (twins also). A third sister, Susan, would marry Adam Ritchie. Susan and Adam would take Joseph Benjamin into their household. Later, after the death of Adam, Susan became the second wife of Simeon Hatley. A fourth sister, Jane, married Redding Almond. A fifth sister, Barbara, married Alfred Hatley, a brother to William and Simeon. A sixth sister, Purity, married Guilford Hatley, a nephew of William and Simeon.

I'm not sure where Joseph and Nancy lived other than it was in Almond Township. If I had to guess the location by the proximity of the neighbors, I would guess the Millingport or Plyler community of today. We do not have any record of where Joseph and Nancy attended church or their burial. The old cemetery behind Salem Church holds many graves, but none dated before 1865. Friendship Church has strong ties to the Burleyson Family and was built next to the old Harwood Cemetery. When Highway 73 was constructed, it went through most of the graves in the original Harwood Cemetery leaving some on the North side of the road. I have heard Miss Lena say that there were Burleysons buried in the old Harwood Cemetery. The old Harwood Cemetery may be where Joseph and Nancy were buried, we do not know for sure.

With the passing of Joseph and Nancy, their property and the welfare of their orphaned children was left to the court of Stanly Co. The court normally appoints a close family member or an upstanding citizen to decide these matters. In the February session of 1848, they chose Isaac Burleyson Jr., who was a brother of Joseph, to become the guardian of his nephew Isaac, the oldest child of Joseph and Nancy. This act placed the responsibility of Joseph and Nancy's property in Isaac Jr's hands. Raising seven children from 21 years to 6 years was not in Isaac Jr.'s future. He was 64 years old and his wife Katherine was 58 years old. Tradition of the day was for the court to bond out orphans to reliable and responsible families to teach the child a trade or skill to prepare him in life. Our Burleyson orphans followed this tradition. Most of these apprenticeships were successful, but a few, in my personal opinion, were not.

In the same session David Derrick age 13 was bound to Mathias Moose, Martha Jane, age 8, was bound to Martin Harkey. In the November session John Wesley was bound to Alex McLester and Joseph Benjamin, age 6, was bound to Adam Ritchie. Being bonded the child would work for his or her board and meals. It was the responsibility of the Bonder to provide appropriate lodging, meals, education and all the protection provided by the head of household given to his own family. Isaac, the oldest child of Joseph and Nancy, was already 21 and did not need to be bound out with the rest of his siblings.

Joseph's father-in-law, John M. Rogers, was still settling Joseph's estate when he died. Valentine Mauney was appointed administrator for John M. Rogers's estate. Before this estate was settled, Nancy died and Martin Harkey was appointed administrator for Nancy's estate. By 1850 the Children were in line to inherit their father's estate, and as heirs of Nancy Roger's Burleyson, they stood to inherit her part of the John M. Rogers Estate also. There were different amounts of money coming in from these two estates.

A year later in November 1849, Isaac now age 22, was given guardianship of his younger siblings. His bond was given to Redding Almond (who married Jane, their mother's sister), to William Burleyson, their first cousin, and to Isaac Jr., their father's brother. This gave Isaac (age 22) custody of all of Joseph and Nancy's property. In September 1850, Isaac age 23, petitioned Stanly Co. Court to sell the property formerly owned by his father and Mother, Joseph and Nancy. This was granted and the property was sold in September 1852. Track #2 of 130 acres known as the The Patty Burleyson Place was sold to Isaac Jr. Burleyson. Track #3, of 173 acres, known as the David Burleyson place was sold to Allen Almond.

I believe that track #2 was originally settled by Isaac Sr. and Martha Clay Burleyson and by 1850 was known by his wife's name, who out lived him. This track was purchased by Isaac Jr., who was buying part of the home place where he had been raised. These transactions need further research, but it looks to me like Joseph owned 130 acres that originally belonged to his father and mother and it also appears that Joseph owned the 173 acres that belonged to his uncle David.

What we do know for sure is that when all of these siblings were bound out and all the family property sold, our Isaac (age 23) moved to Cabarrus Co. and bought a farm.

John Wesley's apprenticeship with Alex McLester was very successful. He was accepted into the McLester home and raised as a son. He grew up in the Bear Creek area of Western Stanly Co.

Joseph Benjamin was bound to the Adam Ritchie family in the Northern section of Stanly Co. Here he learned the milling trade that would become his profession after the war. He was raised in the household of his Aunt, Susan Rogers Ritchie.

David Derrick was first bound to Mathias Moose in August 1848 at the age of 13. In September of 1848 Mathias returned and released David to the court and Davidson Lowder entered the bond. In September 1850 the apprenticeship of David Derrick by Davidson Lowder was cancelled also. He was 15 years old and still a minor. I'm not sure if he was left on his own or not, but he surely failed to complete an apprenticeship. This would be evident in David's later life.

Martha Jane was bound to Martin Harkey at age 8. Martin had been appointed administrator for Nancy Burleyson's estate. He was a landowner and a respected citizen. In the 1870 Stanly Co. Census we find Martha Jane living alone with her two children ages 5 and 2. Their father was believed to be Davidson Lowder. In the 1880 census we find a third child age 6 and Martha Jane is still unmarried.

Susan was the oldest daughter of Joseph and Nancy. She would have been about 14 in 1848. I have not found a written record of Susan until 1861 where she became the third wife of William Jack Carter. William was listed as blind. By 1880 Jack and Susan were living in Furr Township and had nine children (three from Jack's former marriages) an established and successful family.

I can't document where Susan was from 1848 until 1861, but Lillie Burleson told me that, "Susan was one of Grandpa Billie's girls". She said that, "Billie was so rough on his girls that Susan ran off with Jack Carter". I believe this to be true. Susan was Billie's niece and could have been taken in by Billie and Sarah. In 1860 Billie's wife Sarah had died and he had five sons and one daughter living with him. Susan's first child was born sometime in 1860 so I'm assuming that she and Jack Carter were living together by that time. They do not show up on the 1860 Census and maybe had run off to another county.

I'm still trying to locate Wiley, I believe she was one of three female children of Joseph and Nancy, less than 5 yrs old listed in the 1840 Stanly Co. Census. She is mentioned as one of the orphans in November 1849, but I am unable to find her after that time.

The End

John Wesley Burleyson The childhood years By Donald K. Burlison

John Wesley Burlison's name has been recorded under a variety of spellings and forms, including Joseph Wesley Burleyson, J. W. Burlison, and Wesley Burlison. Documents refer to him by both Joseph and John, and his headstone reads J. Wesley Burleyson. He signed his name as John Wesley Burleyson on his marriage certificate, yet he is referred to in Alex McLester's will as Joseph Wesley Burleyson. We know from the 1880 census that his wife referred to him as Wesley, and all his friends knew him as JW.

John Wesley Burlison was the son of Joseph and Nancy Burlison. Joseph Burlison was born in 1805 in Montgomery County, and married Nancy Page about 1828. Joseph and Nancy had four sons:

Isaac Burleyson	(1827-1897)
David Derrick Burleyson	(1835-1896)
John Wesley Burleyson	(1839-1926)
Joseph Benjamin Burleyson	(1842-1900)

According to land records of Montgomery County (Note that in 1841 Stanly County was formed from Montgomery County), by 1841 Joseph and Nancy had acquired a farm of 173 acres, and one year later increased their land holdings to 515 acres. With substantial acreage and a blossoming family, Joseph and Nancy were prosperous.

However, tragedy soon struck. Joseph Burlison died when John Wesley Burlison was only four years old, sometime between January and November of 1843. Only 33 years old at the time of his death, Joseph Burlison left behind Nancy and four young sons. A record of Joseph's death appears in the Montgomery (Stanly) County records in 1843, but it only states that Nancy was to receive his estate. Apparently, Joseph did not leave a will because none was filed into probate.

While the cause of Joseph Burlison's death will never be known, 1842 was the beginning of what was became known as the Great Epidemic. This epidemic caused deaths from chills and fevers, and culminated in 1846-48 with the death of hundreds of Stanly County residents. In October of 1842, the Mecklenburg Jeffersonian reported: "Never within the recollection of our oldest citizens has our village and county been so sickly as in the past two months".

Because Joseph Burlison died without a will, a neighbor named John M. Rogers was appointed administrator of Joseph's estate by the court. It was common practice at that time to appoint a relative to be the executor of an estate, and it is unclear why he was appointed instead of Nancy. A court case in 1849 was found in which a judgment was made concerning the estate of John M. Rogers paying a share to Nancy Burlison's estate as her legal dower.

Court records show that small amounts were reported by the administrator as being due the estate. In 1845 the court appointed a committee to untangle some affairs of the estate, and it found that the administrator owed $56.66 to the estate. John Rogers died prior to October 1846, and by 1847 the land was transferred back in Nancy's name.

Along with Thomas Roland, Nancy Burleson also witnessed the signing of William Hatley's will in April 1847. Hatley died shortly thereafter, and Nancy Burleson appeared in court in May of 1847 to attest to the validity of Hatley's will. The witnessing of Hatley's Will should have served to remind Nancy Burleyson of the necessity of preparing a last will and testament, but the possibility of her imminent death must have seemed remote to her because she died intestate.

John Wesley had another tragedy when he lost his mother in 1848, at the age of nine only years old. An entry in the Book of Wills for Stanly County in 1848 records the death of Nancy Burleyson. This document appointed Isaac Burleson, John Wesley's Uncle, as his legal guardian, and he apparently lived with Isaac for two years, until 1850.

Another entry for Stanly County dated July 15th, 1850, shows Uncle Isaac Burleson returning assets of $181.14 to the three youngest orphans. The oldest son of Joseph and Nancy, Isaac Burleson, was already 23 years old in 1850, and probably did not go to live with Uncle Isaac at the time of his mother's death.

While Isaac went out on his own, David Derrick, John Wesley, and Joseph Benjamin Burleyson were sent to adoptive families in 1850. David Derrick (age 15) went to live with Davidson Lowder, Joseph Benjamin (age 8) went to live with Adam Richy, and John Wesley Burleson (age 11), went to live with Alexander McLester.

David Derrick Burleyson and Joseph Benjamin Burleyson went on to become prominent farmers and businessmen, and their homes are featured in a book of homes in Cabarrus County. It is interesting to note that all four of Joseph Burleyson's sons fought in the Civil War as Confederate infantrymen.

John Wesley Burleyson The military years

Following the tragic death of his parents, Wesley went to live with Alex McLester, a neighboring farmer. John Wesley Burleyson apparently endeared himself to his adopted family, for upon the death of Alex McLester in 1892, his will gives Wesley 56 acres of land and forgave a $200 loan that Alex had made to Wesley (see appendix).

When considering the state of North Carolina during the 1850s, we must remember that while the railroads and public schools had come to North Carolina, most people seldom traveled more than 50 miles from their place of birth.

Upon the outbreak on the War of Northern Aggression, John Wesley enlisted in the Confederate Army on July 29th, 1861 joining the Stanly Yankee Hunters as a Private in Company D, 28th North Carolina Infantry (see appendix).

Company D of the 28th NC also contained cousins Ebin and Adam Burleson. Wesley's brother, Joseph Benjamin Burleyson served in Company C of the 37th NC of Lane's Brigade, also known as the Mecklenburg Wide Awakes". On July 3, 1863, Gen. Lane led his brigade all the way to the rock wall at Gettysburg, but had to fall back. On the wall the 28th NC lost their regimental flag to the 126th NY Infantry. Ebin Burleson and John Wesley were among the lucky ones to return alive to the Confederate cannons to take up a defensive position. Joseph Benjamin was left on the field wounded for the third time and captured by the Yankees.

This is the flag of the 28th N. C., Infantry. This flag was one of the 33 Confederate colors captured with the repulse of Pickett's Charge at Gettysburg on July 3, 1863. Of the 349 men, 104 fell during Pickett's charge.

Wesley fought with a battle-hardened unit of Confederate infantrymen in the Branch Lane Brigade serving at bloody first Manassas (Bull Run) and in the Petersburg Virginia siege lines. During that period the 28th N.C. Reg. was badly outnumbered and short on food, clothing and medical supplies.

Wesley Burleyson was captured by the Union in July of 1863 following his participation in the legendary Pickett's charge at Gettysburg PA, on July 3rd 1863. Upon capture, Wesley Burleson was then sent to the Old Capital Prison in Washington DC.

The Old Capitol Prison in Washington DC

In both the North and South, Civil War POW camps were horrible places. Food was scarce, sanitation was non-existent, and wounded soldiers were often left to die. Disease killed more soldiers in the Civil War than bullets, and any major wound was regarded as a death sentence. Fortunately, Wesley Burleyson was not wounded and he was released from the POW camp after he signed an Oath of Allegiance to the United States on September 26th, 1863.

Although there are no known photographs of Wesley Burleyson during his younger years, his military records describe him as standing five feet seven inches tall, with light hair, light complexion, and blue eyes.

Upon signing the Oath of Allegiance to the United States, Wesley was sent to Philadelphia to bide his time until the end of the Civil War. Wesley's Confederate Army record lists him as missing and a possible rebel deserter, but we know that this entry was made because the Confederates did not know that he had been captured in battle.

John Wesley would tell stories of his journey from Pennsylvania back to North Carolina following the Civil War. Wesley traveled on foot for more than 500 miles without food or provisions. Wesley mentioned that he relied on eating wild honey from beehives and other foraging to survive his journey home. Upon Wesley's return from the Civil War in 1865, he married Sarah L. Page, daughter of Dempsey Page. Sarah and Wesley were married on the 14th of November, 1865, the same day that they applied for a marriage license.

They built a home on land owned by Alex McLester (later bequeathed to John Wesley) and this home survived for over 100 years before being destroyed by fire in 1995.

THE WILL OF ALEX MCLESTER

Sixth-, I give and bequeath to Joseph Wesly Burleyson a fifty acre track of land lying on Big Bear creek known as the Laban Smith track of Land to have and to hold to his own forever. I will and bequeath to Joseph Wesley Burleyson another track of land containing about sixteen acres. Lying between and adjoining the above named track of fifty acres and J.W. Burlson and Allen Barbee lands to have and to hold to the said Joseph Wesley Burleyson his heirs and assignees forever. Except the life estate of my wife in said land devised in a former item of this my will in the meadows in the fifty acre track that I have bequeathed to the said Joseph Wesley Burleyson. I will and bequeath to Joseph Wesley Burleyson one certain note I hold of against him to the amount of two hundred dollars. If not collected during my life time to have and to hold to the said Joseph Wesley Burleyson on his heirs and assignees forever.

John Wesley's barn still stands and is used to house livestock. Upon his death, John Wesley left this house to his son Brantley, who lived in it until his death in 1944.

Wesley and Sarah Burleyson had a total of eleven children.

Caroline Burleyson	(1866-1908)

Delphia Burleyson	(1877-1950)
Lille Belle Burleyson	(1877-1950)

Their last two children, Travis Wesley Burleyson (1883-1885), and Ella Malinda Burleyson (1885-1885), died as toddlers and did not survive to see their third birthdays.

On December 4, 1920 John Wesley Burlison filed his last will and testament at the Stanly County courthouse. This will provides that Sarah Burleyson inherited the whole estate, with additional provisions upon her death. John Wesley left his son Brantley David Burlison, all of his personal property, including the Burlison family Bible and his beloved cap lock musket. John Wesley's musket remained in the family until it was sold at auction in 1951 by Joseph Lee Burlison, Brantley's son. Joseph Lee was fighting for the US Marine Corp in the Korean War and was unable to keep the family heirlooms. Other personal property of John Wesley was locked in a concrete safe at the abandoned family homestead, but all was lost when the safe was opened during his absence overseas.

John Wesley lived to be 87 years old, and remained very active until his death on August 23, 1926. He was remembered by his grandchildren as a loving old gentleman. His granddaughter, Sara Burlison Bock, remembered sitting on his lap at the old homestead, making braids in his long white beard. Wesley's obituary in the Stanly News (Aug 27th, 1925), lionized him as a strong farmer who could do the work of two men.

Eight of Wesley's children are buried next to him and Sarah at the Pleasant Grove cemetery in Frogpond, North Carolina. John Wesley was a dedicated Baptist, at Pleasant Grove church where he is buried alongside many of his children.

ANOTHER OLD VETERAN GOES TO HIS REWARD

Mr. J. W. Burleson, 88 years of age, and a Confederate war veteran, died at his home near St. Martin's Church Sunday morning at 7 o'clock. He was one of the leading farmers of the county and it is said of him before he became decrepit with age, that he could do as much work as two ordinary men.

Funeral services were held Monday at 2 o'clock at Pleasant Grove Church, where the deceased was faithful member. The funeral was largely attended by people from all over the county and Albemarle.

He is survived by six children; three sons and three daughters. They are – Mrs. J. A. Huneycutt, of Albemarle; Misses Belle and Delphia, of home; J. V. Burleson, of near New London; Branton (Brantley), who lives at the old home place, and Cornelius, near St. Martin's Church.

Mr. Burleson was one of the remaining few of those venerable old Confederate veterans who came back to Stanly County after the war and by their hard work and thrift, helped to rebuild a poverty stricken country that had been devastated by four years of war. With the passing of Mr. Burleson, Stanly County has lost one of its older and substantial citizens. He fought through the entire Civil War.

MRS. J. W. BURLERSON DIED ON ROUTE SIX SUNDAY

Mrs. Sarah, wife of Mr. J. W. Burlerson, of Route 6, died at her home on Sunday morning about 5 o'clock.
She had been in feeble health for several years and for the past three months had been almost entirely helpless due to the disease which had gained such strong headway, and to her advanced age. Her death, therefore, was no surprise to members of her family.

Mrs. Burler-
son was nearing her 79th birthday anniversary at the time of her death. She was a native of this county, having been a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Page. She was a devout member of Pleasant Grove Baptist Church, at which place she worshipped regularly for the past forty or fifty years.

The funeral service was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Pleasant Grove church, and the body was laid to rest in the cemetery there. Mrs.
Burler-son's husband who is about 84 years of age, still survive. The following children also survive: Mr. W.
C. Burler-son of Route 5, Mr. J. V. Burler-son, of New London; Mrs. John Honeycutt, of this city, Mr. Bratley Burler-son of Route 6, and Misses Delphia and Belle Burler-son both of whom resided with their parents on Route

James Vespasian Burleson

The third child of John Wesley was James Vespasian Burleson, also known as J. V. or "Pace" Burleson. Pace was the first Burleson in our line to have an advanced education, but no evidence of a College education has been located. We do know that Pace was a teacher in the New London school in the 1890's. It was here that he met his wife, Corinna P. Hardister, who also taught school in the 1890's. Family tradition says that Corinna had a college degree, but only listed her formal educations as "read and write" on the birth certificate on her son, Louis Burleson.

Corinna Pauline Hardister was the daughter of Jonathan W. and Julia Hardister. Jonathan Hardister served in the Civil War in a cannon brigade from Salisbury North Carolina, and was wounded in the buttocks at Pickett's charge in Gettysburg. Jonathan recovered in a Confederate hospital and was re-assigned to tend to the wounded until the end of the War.

Pace Burleson and Corinna Hardister were married on the 30th of May, 1900 in New London, North Carolina. (see appendix) Corinna quit her job at the school and Pace began working a farm just south of New London. Pace was a very deliberate mathematician, and witnesses stated that Pace pre-cut every single board of the family homestead and barn before starting construction. Pace's home stands on a small hilltop about 1.5 miles southeast of where he is buried.

The first two years of marriage was very tragic for Pace and Corinna as their first born son died in 1901 after living less than four weeks. He was not named and is buried at St. Martin's Cemetery. In 1902, Pace and Corinna had a second son who they named Robert Lee. Robert Lee died at 18 months of age, and is buried at New London Cemetery, next to Pace and Corinna.

Despite the tragic loss of their first two children, Pace and Corinna had seven more children.

- Mary Elizabeth Burleson Williams (1905-1973)
- Dorothy Louise Burleson Foutz (1907-1953)
- Sarah B. Burleson Bock (1909-1985)
- Vincent Burleson (1911-1976)
- Claude & Clement Burleson (1912-1912)
- Louis Francis Burleson (1914-1975)

Pace opened a grocery store about 1920 at the southeast corner of Depot and US Route 52 in New London, North Carolina. The grocery store burned down, and Pace became a traveling salesman, selling shoes and miscellaneous house wares. He was also reported to have sold moonshine whiskey, and enjoyed chewing tobacco.

Below is a sample of the 1900 U. S. Census for Stanly County, Big Lick Township, showing the entry for William Burleyson. Note that this census was taken by James Vespasian Burleson, Wesley's son and is in his own handwriting.

The Burleson family lived on a small farm outside of New London, North Carolina, until a tragic accident caused the house to burn. It is said that one of the children was playing near the fireplace and accidentally started a fire that engulfed the home. The Burlesons then moved into the town of New London.

A deed record in the Stanly County courthouse, dated the 31st of December, 1909, shows the Burleson family purchasing their home on 175 Depot Street in New London for $250. (See appendix) The house was torn down in the 1950's.

New London, NC, showing home site and burial site

The family lived in this home until they were grown, and Corinna continued to live there until she entered a nursing home. In her declining years, Corinna Burleson would always keep a picture of Robert Lee, her second son, with her wherever she traveled. Corinna was a very energetic woman, and was known for her fast pace and intense focus. Judging by the caliber of the children she raised, Corinna must have been a remarkable woman.

During their later years, Pace traveled Stanly County on an Army Jeep, and having been a long-time schoolteacher, knew many people in the area. Pace was said to give apples to young children in return for the proper spelling of words. Pace was an avid reader and enjoyed keeping-up with current events. Pace was seldom seen without a newspaper in his hands.

Pace and Corinna are buried at the Cemetery in New London at the corner of Spring St and Cemetery Dr. Corinna's parents, Jonathan W. Hardister and Julia Hardister are also buried at this site.

Descendents of Pace Burleson

In the 1920's, Mary Burleson went to New York City to pursue a career in nursing, and she was soon followed by Sara and Lou. They lived together in an apartment on Lexington Avenue. Mary became a registered nurse and lived in Connecticut with her husband, Jim Williams. Mary raised three children, Sue Williams Bertagna, Jim Williams, and John Williams. Mary was a very kind hearted woman, and her pleasant personality endeared her to all.

Both Vincent and Louis Burleson pursued careers in the U.S. Air Force.

Vince Burleson was a tall, muscular man with blue eyes and handsome features. During combat in the Korean War, Vince's aircraft was shot down, and Vince was forced to bail out at a very high altitude. Vince was badly injured, but survived to receive the Air Medal for his courage. Vince Burleson retired from the Air Force in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, where he died from Emphysema in 1976. Vince Burleson had one son, James Vincent Burleson Jr., who was a successful stockbroker in New York City.

Louis Francis Burleson

Louis Francis Burleson was born on November 30th 1914, on the farm in New London, North Carolina. Originally named Kenneth Burleyson, his name was changed to Louis Francis after his mother converted to Catholicism in 1917. Corinna was told by the Parrish Priest to re-name him with a Catholic name, and 3-year old Louis was not enamored by the name change, complaining "Me Kenny, not Louie". His birth certificate confirms this name change, with the original Kenneth crossed-out and replaced with "Louis Francis".

Louis grew up as the youngest child of Pace and Corinna Burleson, with Pace become a new father at 45 years of age. He was very athletic as a young man, and earned high school letters in football, basketball and baseball. Louis started work at the Mill in New London, and was recognized for his skills in keeping the tricky machinery running. However, Louis became restless with the small town atmosphere of rural North Carolina, and went to New York City after his graduation from high school to stay with his older sisters Mary and Sara who lived in Manhattan.

Louis started his working career as a door-to-door encyclopedia salesman in New York. In 1936 Louis joined the US Army Air Corp and was stationed at Hickam field in Hawaii, where he learned aircraft mechanics. Louis also continued to enjoy baseball, and was the pitcher for the Army team in Hawaii.

BADIN SUPERFORT CREWMEMBER RECEIVES AIR MEDAL—
For outstanding performance of duty while flying U. S. Air Forces
B-29 combat missions over Communist targets in North Korea.
F/Sgt. James Burleson of Badin, N. C., was recently awarded the Air Medal. A member of the Far East Air Forces Okinawa-based 19th Bomb Group, Burleson is a flight engineer on a B-29 Super-fort medium bomber. He now has 36 combat missions to his credit. He is congratulated by Colonel Myers B. Cather of Lincoln, Nebr. 1437

Gifted with a photographic memory and a natural ability in mathematics, Louis became an avid gambler and by supervising poker games he made substantially more than his meager military pay of $36/month. Louis knew all the tricks of the card sharks, and was paid 10% from each pot to keep the game honest. By 1938, Louis had an off-base apartment, and hired a Navy Captain's wife to do the cleaning.

In 1939, Louis was transferred to Kirtland Field in Albuquerque, New Mexico. It was there in 1940 that he met Virginia Griffiths, who he married later that year.

Virginia (Ginger) Griffiths was a native of Ireland, and was born on Feb 15th, 1920 in Dublin. She immigrated to the United States with her mother Geraldine Virginia Burns (born 1903) following the death of her father Charles Griffiths. Geraldine Burns was the daughter of Dr. J. L. Burns of Dublin Ireland.

Charles Griffiths was reported to have served in the British Armed Forces and died while returning from India in 1919. He was buried at sea. Virginia moved with her mother to New York City in 1921 and lived there until they moved to Albuquerque in 1934.

During his time in Australia, Louis flew fifty-two combat missions as a gunner and flight engineer in a B17 bomber. He received the Distinguished Flying Cross on two occasions, each time for meritorious valor in combat, and also received the Air Medal. As a gunner on the B17's, Louis expert marksmanship with the 50-caliber machine guns sent numerous Japanese Zero's crashing into the Pacific Ocean.

Louis Burleson was promoted from Staff Sergeant to Captain within a period of two years. Major Bernard Shriver, the officer who recommended him for commission, later became a 4-star general.

Virginia attended the University of New Mexico and earned a degree in general studies in 1942. Ironically, Louis and Ginger both lived in New York City in the 1920's and lived a few blocks from each other for several years. They both remembered the construction of the Empire State Building, but it would be many years before they would meet in Albuquerque. They met while Ginger was playing with her pet rabbits on her front lawn and Louis drove by in a jeep. Louis stopped to introduce himself, and they immediately found themselves attracted to each other. They were married in September of 1941.

Several days after their wedding, Louis was transferred to Clark Field in the Philippines, and was assigned to the 19th bomb group of the 5th Air Force. It was at Clark Field where Louis first encountered combat when he fought the Japanese on December 7th, 1941.

The Japanese invaded the Philippines, and Louis fled to New Guinea, and later to Australia. Louis was on the very last ship to leave the Philippines before the Japanese invasion and he narrowly escaped participating in the Bataan Death March Louis was transferred to Waco, Texas in 1944 to serve as an instructor of aircraft mechanics. Being a very creative fellow, Louis invented several tools for aircraft warfare, and was transferred to the Pentagon in Washington, DC. The US Air Force patented several of Lou's inventions.

A document was located in which Louis Burleson was recommended to receive the Distinguished Service Cross, the second highest medal awarded in the United States. The DSC, usually given only to generals, was offered to Louis for his outstanding contribution to air warfare in the South Pacific Theatre. Louis declined the medal, stating that he was not worthy of this honor.

Louis Burleson was then assigned to Muroc AFB (now re-named Edwards AFB) in California where he was in charge of aircraft maintenance. It was there that he became friends with Chuck Yeager, who later went on to be the first person to break the sound barrier.

Louis was later transferred to postwar Japan where he resided until the start of the Korean conflict. He served in Korea as an aircraft maintenance squadron commander, and earned the Bronze Star medal. Lou's brother, Vince Burleson, also served in Korea and received the Air Medal.

Louis once remarked that the best advice he ever received from his father was the saying "There's always room at the top". He interpreted his father's advice to mean that a person could always rise to the top, and the only impediment to achievement was a lack of confidence in your own abilities.

Louis was an expert marksman, and was rated as an expert rifleman by the US Army Air Corps. Superior marksmanship was a very important skill, and was held in high regard by all past generations of the Burleson family. Louis enjoyed hunting, and at one time owned more than 15 rifles.

Louis and Ginger had one child, Donald Keith Burleson, while they were stationed in Aurora Colorado. Following Lou's retirement in 1958 with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel, the couple moved back to Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Louis developed a severe hearing loss and crippling arthritis after his retirement from the Air Force, but he always maintained a cheerful disposition and occupied his time by doing volunteer work for the Republican Party. An avid reader, Louis spent his last days keeping up with current political and national events. As Lou's health continued to deteriorate, he was eventually confined to a wheelchair, and died on September 26, 1975 at the age of 60.

Louis F. Burleson was buried in the Santa Fe National Cemetery with full military honors, including a twenty-one gun salute. His wife Virginia (Ginger) died six months later from lung cancer, and is buried next to him.

Donald Keith Burleson

Donald Burleson was born on 3/25/1956 in Aurora Colorado, moving to Albuquerque New Mexico in 1959. He received a BA in Social Psychology from the University of New Mexico in 1979 and an MBA in Information Systems in 1983. He later taught Information Systems at the University of New Mexico, Webster University, The Rochester Institute of Technology and Empire State College.

Andrew Sean Burleson

Andrew Sean Burleson was born the 7th of April 1985 in Albuquerque, New Mexico. He was the first child of Donald and Melissa Burleson. Andrew lived in Rochester, New York for several years and later moved to Albuquerque, New Mexico, again after Don and Melissa's separation. Andrew was an average student at Eldorado High School and played trombone in symphonic and jazz bands with the school. Outside of school he took interest in playing guitar.

Jennifer Anne Burleson

Jennifer Anne Burleson was born on the 27th day in July 1986, in Colorado Springs, Colorado. She is the only daughter of Donald and Melissa Burleson. Jennifer lived in Rochester, New York, for several years and later moved to Albuquerque, New Mexico, after Don and Melissa's divorce. She was an honor roll student at Eldorado High School and participated in activities such as color guard through her school and had an interest in horses and other animals for an additional pastime.

Sara Burleson Bock

Sara Burleson married Larry Bock and lived in Glen Cove, Long Island, New York. Larry was a master piano tuner, and the family remained in the piano business for many years. In the 1970's the family relocated to Los Angeles, where they continued to tune pianos. They had two sons, Bill and John Bock.

Sara had a remarkable talent for making people around her feel comfortable. Blessed with the gift of gab and an absolutely delightful personality, Sara could make total strangers feel like they had known her all their lives. I once witnessed Sara departing an airplane after a short ride, and stopping to hug her new friend and exchange addresses. Even the grumpiest businessman was no match for Sara when she traveled. Sara loved everyone, and in return, she was deeply loved.

Sara's charm and warmth endeared her to all who knew her. She died on the 15th of October 1985 in Los Angeles.

Dorothy Louise Burleson

Dorothy Burleson, the daughter of Pace Burleson, remained in North Carolina. She and her husband, Charles Rudisle Foutz raised a family of seven children. It was always joke how Dorothy and Charlie met. They both met at a church social and were introduced through mutual friends. The joke was that when they got ready to leave, the guy that Dorothy was with could not find his car. Charlie offered to take them home. Dorothy's date lived the closest so he was dropped off first. Charlie's date was dropped off next, and that left Charlie and Dorothy together. It was very curious why Dorothy's date could not find his car at the church social. There is some speculation that Charlie may have rolled the car off into the bushes in order to meet Dorothy.
